Performance with No Language Barriers!

ABOUT "GEAR"

First of its kind in Japan, GEAR is a unique non-verbal performance that stimulates your five senses with a moving story set in the future. Accompanied by impressive stage effects set up using techniques ranging from those used in Kabuki plays to the latest technologies, GEAR is bound to offer you a theatrical experience you will never forget!

STORY

In the wastelands of the future, personified robots (Roboroids) continue to work in a former toy factory. And there appeared a doll that was once manufactured by the factory, "Doll." Through the slow comprehension and adaptation of the environment around them, Roboroids and Doll are able to obtain "curiosity" and "playfulness", bringing them closer to human beings. And so...
